

Emanuel Schloss House

Address: 234 Winder

Local
State v 8/18/88
State Marker
National

234 Winder, 2003

Historic Overview:

The Schloss house is Second Empire style, brick with stone trim and foundation and topped with a low-pitch mansard roof. The house features first story bay windows, stone window hoods and surrounds, dormer windows and molded cornices.

Emanuel Schloss is a significant figure as an early German-Jewish merchant who co-owned a dry goods store with his brother. Emanuel and his wife were also very involved in Detroit's early Jewish community¹.

¹ Information obtained from Michigan's Historic Sites Online.

